

Scoring Guide for How a Bill Becomes a Law Storybook

4 Exemplary (Exceeds the Standards)

- Criteria for Proficient have been met
- Storybook is exceptionally compelling
- Storybook shows evidence of research and understanding of subject matter beyond information coffered in Can You Hear Me Now? lessons and videoconference

3 Proficient (Meets the Standards)

- Uses first-person narrative, from "Bill's" point of view
- Includes illustrated cover and title page/slide
- "Bill's" issue is appropriate for target audience (grades 4 &5)
- Uses vocabulary appropriate for target audience (grades 4 & 5)
- Includes 1-3 sentences/bullets to summarize what "Bill" is all about
- Includes an AB or SB title
- Explains lifecycle of a bill
- Shows where "Bill" currently is in lifecycle
- Is historically accurate
- Includes a content-related illustration/picture/graphic on each page/slide
- Includes a bibliography of sources used to tell story of "Bill"
- Has been proofread for content, grammar, and spelling

2 Progressing (Towards the Standards)

- Meets at least eight of criteria for Proficient
- May need more content
- May contain inaccurate information
- May contain grammar and spelling errors that detract from meaning and message of story
- Storybook needs more work

1 Not Yet Meeting the Standards

- Meets less than eight of the criteria for Proficient
- Lacks content
- Assignment should be redone